CAMP DIRECTOR

Richard Southern
Men's & Women's Tennis Coach
BETHEL COLLEGE

Coach Southern is in his first year as head coach at Bethel College. Prior to coming to Bethel College, Coach

Southern spent three years at Southwestern College, where he was named the ITA Central Region Men's Assistant Coach of the Year in 2015.

Southern is a 2012 graduate from the University of the Southwest (Hobbs, N.M.), with a B.A in Business Administration. He played top six during the duration of his college career and served as captain of his tennis team for two years. Coach Southern earned his master's in Business Administration from Southwestern College in 2015.

Coach Southern is an active member of the United States Tennis Association and continues to be active in playing and directing tournaments. During the summer, Coach Southern directs the Bethel College Tennis Camps and activities at the Ward Tennis Center.

CAMP PHILOSOPHY

Bethel College Tennis Camps are designed first and foremost to provide a fun and safe learning environment for the game of tennis. Our camp staff is made up of committed and proven teaching professionals who have a wide range of experience at both the high school and collegiate levels. It is our hope that each camper will leave the Bethel College Tennis Camp with a renewed love for the game of tennis while also gaining the knowledge to improve and develop their game at a higher level.
